Our Annual Banquet is Coming

PCMC Annual Banquet at Barnaby's in Tukwila, 16401 West Valley Highway-about 6:30pm for entertainment with dinner at about 7-7:30pm $25 per person at door- $17.50 in advance per person.(drinks extra) Please bring a door prize- we will sell $1 raffle tickets. This turns out to be lots of fun. Casual dress-no theme this year. You do not need a date/partner or spouse to attend...just come and have fun.

FYI: the entertainment is a jazz/classical guitarist named Angelo. He was a big hit at the McCaw Hall opening, as well as other events. I consider this background music, thus you can chat with your fellow club members and renew old friendships.

Don't forget to bring a raffle item.

2004 Dues are Way Over Due

Your annual $25 Club dues are due during the months of October and November. Be sure to give Gary Hallberg your check or cash.

January 2004 Club Meeting Minutes

President Gary Dagan opened the meeting at 7:30 PM at Bowen Scarff FORD on Friday, January 9, 2004. He noted that we raised $1350.15 at the Christmas Auction and it was an awesome event.

Secretary Report, Cecil Paoletti. The minutes for the December meeting were accepted as amended with regard to the distribution of funds raised at the Christmas Auction. All funds were donated to the PICC, and this decision had been made earlier in 2003.

Guest Speaker: Larry Duffield, representing Haggerty Classic Specialty Car Insurance delivered a presentation. He noted that the typical car collector can save considerable money on insurance by using the product he represented. Key elements of his program were "Agreed upon value, 2500 miles a year, and not a daily driver.

Treasurer's Report: The club is in sound financial condition.

Tours and Events, Margaret Petersen. We had 21 attendees at the "Museum of Science and Industry" exhibit chronicling the Ford Company's 100-year anniversary. Following our attendance at the exhibit the group met for lunch at "Mr. Bills", a 40's type diner, for lunch.

Attention was called to Barbara Conner Reed's art show at 901 First Ave. S in the "Artist's Gallery of Seattle". Barbara is a club member and has done some very nice work that she donated for PCMC's benefit.

The January Dinner Night Out will be at the Red Robin restaurant in the South Center area. Banquet cost will be $17.50 to each participating member. The club is subsidizing the event at $7.50 per person for the first 50 people.

Membership Report, Linda Hallberg. There were two guests, Karen and Timothy Clark. They recently acquired a "69 Mustang Sport Coupe. There were 23 members at the meeting.

Pegasus Report, Tom Rowley. The November issue was distributed both electronically and in hard copy, as appropriate.

Old Business: Raising the dues will be discussed at the next Board meeting after reviewing the operating expenses of the club.

New Business: The Bowen Scarff Classic Ford car show will be on August 14, the third Saturday in August. Mark Palmore asked if anyone were interested in being a co-chairman of the event please contact him. He also solicited ideas for trophies.

Discussion was had on efforts to get Mustang car clubs to have joint events.

President Dagan asked the members what the club should be doing for activities. Some suggestions were,

- The Rally was popular and we should do more, possibly including participation by other clubs.
- A Yakima Run, possibly considering with the "Ponies In The Sun" car show was discussed.
- Participation in a "Pony Trails" event was considered.
- Attendance and Participation in the Port Angeles show, and others, was discussed.

Members should E-mail Gary Dagan or Margaret Petersen with their ideas.

Lotteries: Luke won a Parts Interchange Manual. Mark Palmore, representing Bowen Scarff, contributed 7 calendars and Pocket planners, which were won by various club members.

"Split the Pot" was won by Margaret Petersen. Kevin Lee won "Member in Attendance".

The meeting adjourned at 8:55 PM.

Cecil Paoletti, Secretary

New Parts Store

Hello,

My name is Curt Ivie. I have a mustang parts center and restoration shop in Centralia, Washington. I am going to be offering Washington State residence belonging to mustang clubs discounts off of mustang parts purchases for their projects, and restorations. A minimum of 10% off on any 64-73 mustang parts we carry (which is just about all.....more so 64-70) . We offer combine shipping on multiple parts orders and greater discounts.

You can visit our Website at www.aglassenterprise.com and check out our ebay store. This is only what time we have to list parts.....not our entire inventory. We are currently working on a web page just for our mustang parts and services. If you have interest in this please let me know, glad to work with you.

I am also in the process of starting a mustang club in our area as well.

I have already had 25 people with 64-73 mustangs sign up on a mustang club list to start this off and still growing quickly.

Let me know if our shop can help out. Our toll free number to reach us at our shop is 1-800-223-1141 our hours are 8-5 M-F 10-5 Sat. pacific time. Glad to work with you.

Thanks again, Curt / partsetc

Notice

The Mustang Ranch, located in Eatonville, WA is not going out of business, contrary to what is being circulated on flyer concerning an auction.

The Mustang Ranch is having a liquidation of used parts auction only. The Mustang ranch will continue to operate as we for the past 28 years. We are sorry if there has been any confusion, If you have any questions feel free to call us at 1-800-827-2623

Thanks for understanding.

Sincerely, Donnie & Kim Bearteet, Mustang ranch.

Saturdays/Marbles

The older I get, the more I enjoy Saturday mornings.

Perhaps it's the quiet solitude that comes with being the first to rise, or maybe it's the unbounded joy of not having to be at work. Either way, the first few hours of a Saturday morning are most enjoyable.

A few weeks ago, I was shuffling toward the basement ham radio with a steaming cup of coffee in one hand and the morning paper in the other.

What began as a typical Saturday morning turned into one of those lessons that life seems to hand you from time to time.

Let me tell you about it. I turned the dial up into the phone portion of the band on my ham radio in order to listen to a Saturday morning swap net. Along the way, I came across an older sounding chap, with a tremendous signal and a golden voice. You know the kind; he sounded like he should be in the broadcasting business.

He was telling whomever he was talking with something about "a thousand marbles." I was intrigued and stopped to listen to what he had to say.

"Well, Tom, it sure sounds like you're busy with your job." I'm sure they pay you well but it's a shame you have to be away from home and your family so much. Hard to believe a young fellow should have to work sixty or seventy hours a week to make ends meet.

Too bad you missed your daughter's dance recital he continued, "Let me tell you something Tom, something that has helped me keep a good perspective on my own priorities."

And that's when he began to explain his theory of a "thousand marbles." You see, I sat down one day and did a little arithmetic." The average person lives about seventy-five years. I know, some live more and some live less, but on average, folks live about seventy-five years. Now then, I multiplied 75 times 52 and I came up with 3900, which is the number of Saturdays that the average person has in their entire lifetime."

"Now, stick with me, Tom, I'm getting to the important part. It took me until I was fifty-five years old to think about all this in any detail" he went on, "and by that time I had lived through over two thousand eight hundred Saturdays.

I got to thinking that if I lived to be seventy-five, I only had about a thousand of them left to enjoy. So I went to a toy store and bought every single marble they had. I ended up having to visit three toy stores to round up 1000 marbles.

I took them home and put them inside a large, clear plastic container right here in the sack next to my gear."

"Every Saturday since then, I have taken one marble out and thrown it away. I found that by watching the marbles diminish, I focus more on the really important things in life. There is nothing like watching your time here on this earth run out to help get your priorities straight."

"Now let me tell you one last thing before I signoff with you and take my lovely wife out for breakfast. This morning, I took the very last marble out of the container. I figure that if I make it until next Saturday then I have been given a little extra time. And the one thing we can all use is a little more time."

"It was nice to meet you Tom, I hope you spend more time with your family, and I hope to meet you again here on the band. This is 75Year Old Man, K9NZQ, clear and going QRT, good morning!"

You could have heard a pin drop on the band when this fellow signed off. I guess he gave us all a lot to think about. I had planned to work on the antenna that morning, and then I was going to meet up with a few hams to work on the next club newsletter. Instead, I went upstairs and woke my wife up with a kiss. "C'mon honey, I'm taking you and the kids to breakfast." What brought this on?" she asked with a smile. "Oh, nothing special, it's just been a long time since we spent a Saturday together with the kids. And hey, can we stop at a toy store while we're out? I need to buy some marbles..."

A friend sent this to me, so I to you, my friend.

And so, as one very smart bear once said, "If you live to be a hundred, I want to live to be a hundred minus one day, so I never have to live without you." Winnie the Pooh
