17th Annual Pacific Northwest Historics Vintage Auto Races

This event will be held July 1-3, 2005 at Pacific Raceways, Kent, WA. There are activities all three days and Gary Hallberg can provide detailed information about the weekend and volunteer opportunities. Our club will enter a limited set of cars into the Car Corral. I believe the cost is $25 per car with a limited number of spaces allowed.

All proceeds for this event go to Children's Hospital. It's a great event with lots to see, do and eat.

Contact Gary if you want to enter you car. Gary sent club members a good information package via e-mail.

Tours and Events: Margaret Petersen. Margaret reported there was a great turnout at the Hallberg's for the tech session on March 26th. The trip to Vashon Island was a beautiful sunny day, they had a nice lunch, and the ferryboat rides were great. She also reported there are new dates added to the website calendar. There will be no club meeting on Friday July 1st (because of the holiday weekend). Sunday July 3rd is the Vintage Car race. Margaret received a special request from Kittitas Ellensburg "Yesterdays/Tomorrow's" show on Sat. April 16th. They are looking for '40's & '50's automobiles, so wasn't quite sure why they wanted Mustangs!! Fugate Ford show is Sat. May 21st. Skyomish River Days Show is Sat. August 27th. The April 13th dinner night out will be at "Dave's Diner". The May 13th (Friday) dinner night will be at "Galliano's" which reservations will probably have to be made for that night. Sunday, June 5th is "All Ford Picnic" and Friday, July 15th is "Pony Trails". Reno, Hot August Nights rooms (by Gary D.) are all sold out!

Pegasus Newsletter: Tom Rowley. Tom cannot do the June Pegasus newsletter and is looking for a volunteer. Tom should be receiving his Red '05 Convertible any day!

Website: Skip Echert. Skip reported there are 4 new cars on the webs 'gallery'. He feels our club is easier to find now with "Seattle" published in the search engine. He is open for more suggestions for "key words" for the website search engine too!

Tech Session: Brad Hofman. Brad reported how Linda's '66 Convertible emergency brake was repaired at the tech session on Sat. March 26th at the Hallberg's. A BIG "thank- you" to the Hallberg's who put out lots of food and drinks for club members to enjoy, also Margaret did an engine detail, plus paint-chip repair with Gary D. Member Ed Nicolaus might have a door to skin at the next meeting as he was at the Portland swap meet possibly buying a "crimping tool".

Iraq Update: Chris & Joyce's son Derick is now safely home from Iraq!!! Sandy's son should be home soon, he's still waiting for a Dr's O.K. from an arm injury (roll-over accident he had 4 yrs. ago). The club is looking for a new contact to help out the troops. Luke reported he has a friend still over there, and will report to Tom Rowley by email with a list of items still needed for the troops.

New Business: Brad Hofman will send out an email to members to possibly "cultivate" a list of club tools for members-only to borrow.

Lotteries: Split the pot was once again won by Brad Hofman
Member in Attendance was won by Laura Lievero (who was not in attendance), so it will be carried over till next month.
Bowen Scarff donated a $25 gift card, which was won by Dawn Vanderford.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:47 p.m.
