Pegasus Minutes for October 6, 2006

President David Glidewell called the meeting to order at 7:45pm at Bowen Scarff Ford in Kent.

About 26 members were in attendance.

Secretary's Report: Margaret Petersen was acting secretary for absent Julie Thompson. Only a few members had a chance to read last months late Pegasus, due to extenuating circumstances of the editor, Donna Kercher. I offered to read them out loud, but the offer was denied and the September minutes were approved.

Treasurer's Report: Brad Hoffman reported that our bank account is in good shape. The club's annual dues of $25 are due this month. Please pay with a check if possible.

Vice President: Kirk Charboneau: Discussed his plans for our annual banquet, which might be held on Saturday, February 3, 2007. Several locations were mentioned, HD Hotspurs, Gordy's at Foster's Golf Course, The Muckleshoot Casino and Verrazano's Italian Restaurant on Pacific Highway. A vote was taken, however, it was vague as to which of two locations Kirk will pursue. This dinner will probably cost about $35 per person. Mark mentioned that he wants the club to invite Stephanie, the administrative support person for our car show, to the banquet to receive an honor, as well as Bud Melby and Ed Harris for their participation. This will be discussed at the Board Meeting.

Further details, including the menus, will be discussed at the Wed. Oct. 25th board meeting to be held at the Apogee Restaurant at 7pm. Anyone may attend.

Pegasus: Donna Kercher explained the Pegasus was late due to the mishap that her debit card had been cloned, her bank accounts wiped out, thus her attention was on rectifying this situation.

Membership: Linda Hallberg introduced guest Tim Greely who owns a 1966 Coupe. Tim was recruited by Gary Dagan at the last Covington cruise in of the summer season. Guidelines for being a PCMC club member were restated by Linda.

Tours and Events: Margaret Petersen. Several locations for the monthly 13th dinner gathering were discussed, new locations suggestions are always appreciated. Galliano's in Tukwila was finally set by the 10/13th birthday boy, Chris Johnson. It was mentioned that the Monroe swap meet would be held 10/7 & 8. If several people wanted to attend, they might want to car pool. No one seemed interested. It was mentioned that a visit to Bud Melby's Museum of Mechanical Art will be in the near future, with Bud preferring Sundays. Mark Palmore would like to invite Bowen Scarff Ford employees to tag along. Another club member mentioned an Auburn Mustang shop for a tour as well. There is also a new business called "Blue Oval Ponies" in Bellevue. The website www.fordcare.com was brought up for three for one oil change at Ford Stores. For $36.95 you can get 3 oil changes. Sunday, Dec 3 is XXX Drive Inn's Annual Toy's for Tot's drive with breakfast being served to those who donate new, unwrapped toys. Lets get some members together for this worthy cause. Also, the XXX owner, Jose, got his stolen classic cars returned. Unfortunately, the thieves got off on a technicality.

Website: no report

New Business:

Dave reminded the club that we need nominations for new officers for the election in December. Gary Dagan nominated Dave Glidewell for President, Brad Hoffman was suggested for Treasurer and Julie Thompson for Secretary. Discussion of our annual charity donation to PICC will be discussed at the 10/25 board meeting, as well as what food to serve at the annual PCMC auction and elections.

Dave also reported on some of the Sept. Car events, including the Yakima, "Ponies in the Sun", where 4 out of 6 club cars present received trophies. Other events discussed were the Lacey car show and the "Rod Run to the End of the World" car shows.

Chris Johnson mentioned someone has a 1984 Hatchback Mustang for sale, and Linda Hallberg mentioned a 1966 GTA Mustang convertible for sale. Contact those members for phone numbers.

GaryHallberg displayed some PCMC club logo merchandise done by a private company and not our club. There was a coffee mug for $14, hats, shirts, etc. for various prices to be found on www.cafepress.com/pcmc Split the Pot ($36) went to Sandy Hallberg. ($102) Member in attendance would have been won by George Hammond, if he would have attended the meeting. Door prizes were a Ford key chain won by Gary Hallberg and an oil filter won by Dan Wieshaar.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:10pm with members invited to Round Table Pizza, located near IKEA.
